The Pythagorean Theorem

Each shaded triangle below has legs with lengths $a$ and $b$ and a hypotenuse of length $c$. Use scissors to carefully cut out each triangle. Then arrange the triangles in the square as instructed in parts (a) and (c) of problem 2-114.